Slash Toy Prices For Late Shoppers; Selections Good In Science, Creative Crafts

If you've been waiting for T-Hour (that's the last possible minute for buying toys for Christmas) this is it. Most stores have marked down prices, and, although selections are not complete, there still are plenty of goodies to buy for the young ones.

The clerks say this has been primarily a science-space Christmas, as new toys go. And the greatest things in educational toys have been offered this year for the first time in this generation. All of which proves that our children and grandchildren are more intelligent and more worldly than we were at that age!

GIRLS' TOYS

Only in the little girls' line do automation and the space age fail. Little girls still want housekeeping toys, dolls and the old-fashioned cribs and cradles to put their "babies" in. Dolls, still in good supply, range in

TOWN OFFICER STRUCK BY CAR

Borough Officer Paul B. Shearer was injured Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock when struck by a car while directing traffic in Lincoln Square.

According to the borough police report Shearer was at the York St. intersection of the square when he saw a car operated by Richard A. Mitchell, 218 Chambersburg St., approaching York St. from the square.

A woman and a child were crossing and it appeared that the car might strike them. Shearer stepped aside and attempted to signal the vehicle to stop and was struck by the auto. He suffered a back injury and a cut on the left leg.

The injuries were not sufficiently serious to cause him to abandon his duties, and he continued working until 11:30 o'clock Friday night, according to the report.

PHI DELTA FRAT WINS FIRST IN XMAS CONTEST

A "Symbol of a Child's Christmas" won first place for the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity, 109 W. Lincoln Ave., Friday night in the annual Christmas decorations contest held at Gettysburg College.

As in the past, the displays drew hundreds of motorists and traffic was heavy in the college area from about 6 o'clock Friday evening until about 9 p.m.

The winning display was based on a huge Christmas tree spreading over a wide area. Various decorations were on the tree, and it was topped by a star. Under the tree were a creche, toys and Christmas gift-wrapped boxes.

A narration, accompanied by music, told how the "lowly pine tree" wishing to honor God had no gifts to offer but itself, then a star came to shine over it. From that came the custom of decorating the tree. As the explanation proceeded the tree, the star, various decorations, the creche and toys were illuminated until all were lighted.

SECOND PLACE
Second in the competition was the entry of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, on the College Campus near Brua Hall. In the final judging it was only two points behind the first place winner.

Entitled "A Prophecy Come True," the display was in three sections, a representation of St. John, the manger scene and a representation of a church with two children kneeling before the altar. The narration opened with only St. John illuminated, telling of the light that was to come into the world. A star then moved from St. John to above the creche and the manger was illuminated while the narration told of the birth.

MOVING STAR

The star then moved above the church, and it was illuminated with the narration, accompanied by Handel's Hallelujah Chorus, telling of how the Light of the world still lives and affects man's lives.

YOUTH IS JAILED

TUMOR CLINIC AT HOSPITAL IS GIVEN OKAY

The Tumor Clinic at the Warner Hospital, which has been visited by more than 6,000 Adams Countyans since its organization in May, 1949, has won another annual accreditation from the American College of Surgeons.

Based on an exhaustive questionnaire, an inspection of the physical plant and the organizational setup, the accreditation is awarded only to hospitals whose clinics meet high standards set by the College of Surgeons.

The Tumor Clinic at the Warner Hospital, which registered 114 new patients in 1963, 65 of them females, did followup work on 745 in the same year.

RECORDS FILL FILES

In the 15 years the clinic has operated here with the cooperation of the Warner Hospital and the Adams County Cancer Society, 1,602 malignancies have been registered and the clinic has processed a total of 2,152 cases. All cases of malignancies are registered at the clinic which operates in the basement of the Warner Hospital, and the patients are followed for life. Files are filled with statistical and photographic records of the hundreds of cases that have been accumulated in the clinic's records.

Records show that skin cancers are the most numerous and the next largest group are cancers of the female reproductive organs and the digestive system.

The clinic's annual report for 1963 showed that more than one in four of the cases in the clinic's records showed cases of cancer "apparently cured." The exact figure was 26.3 per cent with another 21.1 per cent "in doubt." The prognosis on the other cases in the files was less optimistic.

SUPERVISED BY BOARD

The Tumor Clinic at the Warner Hospital operates under the supervision of a board of directors headed by Dr. Bruce N. Wolff, hospital surgeon, and including these members of the medical staff of the hospital: Dr. J. L. Boyer, Dr. J. H. Hammett, Dr. C. H. Johnson and Dr. Leon D. Roos.

The tumor registry secretary is Mrs. Jane Lightner, Buford Ave., who has been serving the clinic in that capacity for the last 12 years and who this year was formally honored by the American Cancer Society with a special award in recognition of the excellence of her services to the tumor clinic here.

Tumor clinic sessions are held each Thursday morning at the hospital when new cases are listed and patients are invited to come in for checkups and progress reports. Patient visits since the clinic was established have totaled 6,115. There were 493 visits at the weekly clinic sessions last year.

Seek Exiles For Firing At U.N. Building

NEW YORK (AP) — Police pushed a massive hunt among the city's many Cuban exile groups today in hopes of turning up the persons responsible for firing a bazooka shell at the United Nations Building.

The shot fell short of its mark and exploded harmlessly in the East River Friday.

The FBI assigned a sizable force to the case. The Central Intelligence Agency and the intelligence services of the Army, Navy and Air Force also reportedly were in on the hunt.

PUSH PROBE

Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy assured Mayor Robert F. Wagner of an "intense police department investigation to seek out and apprehend the perpetrators." The mayor relayed the promise to Adlai Stevenson, U.S. ambassador at the U.N.

The bazooka firing, which may have been the work of anti-Castroites, came as a Cuban minister was addressing delegates inside the U.N. Building.

ADJOURN CASE ON SCHOOL AID UNTIL DEC. 22

ANNAPOLIS — Final evidence for the defer- was introduced Friday in the tenth session of a precedent-setting case designed to challenge the constitutionality of state aid to church-related colleges.

Judge O. Bowie Duckett, of Anne Arundel County circuit court, adjourned the case until December 22, when plaintiffs' counsel will present their rebuttal of defense testimony. Legal arguments are expected to be heard in mid-January and Judge Duckett has indicated his decision will come soon after.

Ultimately the case is expected to reach the United States Supreme Court and to produce a precedent which will affect appropriations in aid of church-related colleges in many states.

FUNDS CHALLENGED

The action attacks legislative appropriations by Maryland of $2,500,000 to provide matching building fund grants to four small liberal arts colleges: Notre Dame of Maryland College, Hood College, St. Joseph College and Western Maryland College.

Plaintiffs in the case are the Horace Mann League and 12 Maryland taxpayers. The four recipient institutions are co-defendants with various Maryland officials who are charged with administering the appropriations.

Mariner 4 Passes Thru First Of Three Meteor Streams Enroute To Mars

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — U.S. spacecraft Mariner 4 has raced unscathed through the thickest part of the first of three meteor streams it must cross on its 7½-month journey to take television pictures of Mars.

The meteor streams are great bands of dust-like micrometeorites hundreds of millions of miles long. When earth passes through one of the streams the motes of cosmic matter burn in the atmosphere as shooting stars.

Scientists at Pasadena's Jet Propulsion Laboratory, who are guiding the unmanned probe's interplanetary voyage, said Mariner passed through the densest part of the Geminid Stream Friday afternoon with no damage reported.

LURKING SPECKS

None was expected. But larger specks sometimes lurk in the meteor streams, and if Mariner collides with anything, chances

D. Richard Guise, campaign chairman announced at a luncheon meeting in the Hotel Gettysburg of the board campaign committee Friday noon that the campaign has raised $32,860.33 so far, and there is a possibility that the final amount may be $33,000.

COMMIES GET FIRM GRIP ON LITTLE SUDAN

By ANDREW BOROWIEC
CAIRO (AP) — Communist influence is growing in neighboring Sudan. Western diplomats fear that the tendency will increase in the months to come, making Sudan another problem country as far as the West is concerned.

The country has a major strategic importance. It borders the Congo, Ethiopia and ex-British East Africa. It controls part of the Red Sea coastline.

An October revolution toppled the military regime of Ibrahim Abboud. Since then the Sudanese press has been hailing charges of imperialism against the West. Although pledging a middle-road policy, Prime Minister Sir El Khatim El Khalifa promised increased cooperation with the Soviet Union.

FOUR ARE REDS

Four ministers out of the 15-man cabinet are Communists. Communists control 49 out of 75 labor unions, although the industrial population constitutes 10 per cent of the total labor force.

Soviet-inspired arms shipments to Congo rebels from Algeria and the United Arab Republic have been going through Sudan.

Western diplomats in Khartoum are watching these developments with increasing concern, especially since the nation is beset by a racial feud between the Arab north and the black African south.

The strong prolet tendency was an apparent reaction to the former military regime.

MOVE SWIFTLY

Communists moved swiftly when the regime toppled, although Communist party strength does not exceed some 10,000 members in a nation of 14 million.

Young Sudanese trained in Soviet bloc countries are now obtaining a number of posts in the administration.

Chinese Communists are becoming more and more active. Soviet aid so far has consisted of over $20 million in ruble credit, mainly for agricultural projects. This compares with over $80 million spent by the United States over the past eight years.

Offsetting this is the growing anti-Communist propaganda of traditional Islamic circles. Priests are reported warning the faithful in mosques of "godless communism."

GYPSY QUEEN LAID TO REST

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—A gypsy queen was buried in Charlotte today amid a shower of gold and silver from her clansmen and members of other clans across the nation.

Queen Ruby Johnson of Montgomery, Ala., whose Johnson Clan of Rumanian gypsies numbers some 500 members along the Eastern Seaboard from Florida to Baltimore, was laid to rest in a family plot.

Members of her tribe and friends from other tribes as far away as California showered her coffin with gifts of gold and silver at the burial plot and with more gifts and ashes after it was lowered into the grave.

The tribe will have no queen for a year. Then, members may appoint her successor from within the Johnson clan.

The showering of gifts began Friday at a Raleigh funeral home where Queen Ruby lay in state. She died Wednesday at Duke Hospital in Durham.

The clansmen arrived by air from California, Chicago, Baltimore, New York, and other places. Others drove to Raleigh in their big Cadillacs, Lincolns and expensive sports cars.

They approached her bier in turn, paid their respects and dropped handfuls of money, silver, gold, or jewels onto the body. The gifts symbolize affection.

Church Given Cross, Plates

St. John's United Church of Christ, McKnightstown, will hold a special service of dedication during the worship service at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning. A new altar cross will be dedicated in memory of Mrs. Olive Loria, a former member of the congregation who passed away a year ago. The cross has been presented to the church by her husband, Michel Loria, a member of the congregation.

The brass cross will replace a wooden one which has been in use for many years and was made by a former member of the congregation, the late William Weikert. It will be used in the worship center in the Church School room.

During the service, new offering plates will also be dedicated. The Loyal Workers' Class of the Church School will present the plates to the congregation.

The two gifts will complete the set of new altar appointments for the church. Flower vases and candlesticks were dedicated a number of years ago.

The public is invited to the service.

SPECTATORS HURT AT GAME; STANDS BREAK

COLLEGEVILLE, Pa. (AP)—"I was at the bottom and people started falling on me. Some got their feet caught in the stands. Two girls fainted."

Speaking was Buz Winterstein, 16, of Royersford, who was one of several trapped Friday when a section of bleachers collapsed and injured at least four people at a high school basketball game in this Montgomery County community.

About 100 other spectators scrambled to safety when the supporting bolts ripped loose from the wall and the wooden stands pitched forward.

BROKEN LEG

Most seriously injured was Harvey Richards, of Collegeville, who suffered a broken leg. He was admitted to Montgomery Hospital in nearby Norristown. Three others suffered mild injuries and were treated and released from the hospital.

Spectators, police and players pitched in to contain the falling wooden stands extricate spectators and keep others from being injured.

BOLTS PULLED

Before the collapse, Winterstein said, some youngsters near the top of the stands noticed the bolts pulling away and shouted a warning.

"When the stands came down, a lot of people were thrown to the floor and other people came over to help," he said.

George Hill, coach of the Collegeville-Trappe team, said: "Everybody was rushing to help. Some people were trapped under the stands and it took a while to get them out."

Spectators said there may have been other persons who suffered minor injuries but did not require hospital treatment.

The game between Collegeville-Trappe and Spring-Ford was called off.

CLAIMS SCHOOL WAS "SNOOPY"

MANASQUAN, N.J. (AP) — The mother of a high school student is accusing school officials of using psychological tests to snoop on her family's private life.

But state education officials say no snooping is involved and that the tests help plan a better school curriculum.

The controversy started when Mrs. John J. Bannigan wrote to the governor and the state commissioner of education. She complained that her son, John, a high school freshman, had been asked to comment on whether he had a happy family

PENN STATE IS WINNING FAME ON CAGE FLOOR

By TED MEIER

The Nittany Lions of Penn State usually are associated with football powerhouses. Now they are beginning to be reckoned with on a national scale in college basketball.

A year ago the John Egli-coached team lost six of its first 10 games, but closed the season with a rush by winning 12 of 13 games for an over-all 16-7, Penn State's best record in a decade.

The Nittany Lions opened this season with a one point defeat on the road to Maryland, 72-71. They bounced back at home with an 81-59 triumph over Syracuse to knock the Orange out of the Associated Press Top Ten.

LONG ROAD TRIP

They opened a rugged eight game road trip Friday night by defeating Kansas of the Big Eight 50-48 in the Sunflower doubleheader at Manhattan, Kan. Bob Weiss' shot from under the basket with 42 seconds left won the game and demonstrated Penn State cannot be underestimated.

The Lions play Kansas State at Lawrence, Kan., tonight. Next week they play at Gettysburg, at Temple and meet NYU in Baltimore before playing two games in the Motor City Classic at Detroit Dec. 28-29. Their eighth straight road game is at Duke Jan. 5.

BEATS LOYOLA

Kansas State overcame Chicago Loyola 76-67 in the second game of the Sunflower twin bill while second-ranked Wichita whipped Brigham Young 93-76, seventh-ranked UCLA, the national champs, overwhelmed Arizona State 107-76, and Oklahoma City handed Wyoming its first defeat 99-90. Southern California opened a road trip by losing to North Carolina State at Greensboro, N.C. 67-59.

Kelly Pete's 29 points, 20 of them in the second half, sparked Wichita to its home court triumph over BYU. Pete threw in four baskets to break up a BYU rally after the Cougars had pulled to within 56-54.

UCLA, opening its home season, was led by Gail Goodrich's 23 points.

YALE SENDS TOKEN SQUAD TO DEFY NCAA

NEW YORK (AP) — Yale, announcing it would not be dictated to by any outside source, sent a token squad to an AAU track meet Friday night in defiance of an NCAA memorandum banning such activity.

Yale Athletic Director DeLaney Kiputh said the Elis took the action "at the risk of whatever happens as a result."

"Yale does not intend to have its athletes used as weapons in this fight," he said, referring to the long-standing power struggle between the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union over control of amateur athletics in this country.

OTHERS REPLACE

The other seven members of the ancient Ivy League announced agreement in principle with Yale's action, the first defiance of an NCAA ban on collegiate athletes competing in position.

The whole squabble started several years ago when the NCAA, representing the colleges, sought a larger voice in the selection and administration of its athletes who engage in international competition, such as the Olympics.

The AAU is recognized internationally as the administrative and sanctioning body for such competition and refused to relinquish its power.

Future Nurses Club Receives Charter

The newly-formed Future Nurses Club of Gettysburg Senior High School has been granted a charter from the National League of Nursing, New York, joining approximately 2,000 high schools in the country to endorse nurses' clubs. The charter was granted in the recommendation of Morris Quint, high school principal.

The local Future Nurses Club has 23 members this term, and is sponsored by the Warner Hospital Auxiliary. Miss Ellen Miller, school nurse, is club advisor.

Miss Roann Schneider is president of the GHS club, with Linda Lea Riley, vice president; Pamela Burcham, secretary, and Linda Hofe, treasurer. Members are planning various service activities in the community in preparation for careers in nursing and health services.

"I think it's unfair to ask children to tell about their private affairs," said Mrs. Bannigan.

"It's an invasion of privacy."

Phi Delta Frat

Third honors were awarded to the Alpha Tau Omega display, near the Phi Gamma Delta, also featuring the birth of Christ. A huge illuminated star was above the fraternity house. On the ground before it were three scenes, one of the Annunciation to the Blessed Virgin that she would bear Christ, another showing the scene when Mary and Joseph found no room in the inn and the third showing the creche. The scenes were illuminated in turn as a narration told the story.

OTHER FAVORITES

The display "What's Behind Christmas" at Lambda Chi Alpha, showing a modernistic Christmas tree which parted to show a church, was high in the judging, as was the "Christmas 1890" scene at Sigma Nu which depicted a block of houses, including a church, bake shop and toy shop with mannikins in 1890 costumes walking about on the "street." Another high on the list was the Phi Sigma Kappa "Come Worship the New Born King" display.

Other displays and their themes included: Sigma Alpha Epsilon, "The Angel of the Lord Came Upon Them"; Kappa Delta Rho, "O Come All Ye Faithful"; Theta Chi, "Let the Heavens Be Glad and Let the Earth Rejoice"; Phi Kappa Psi, "And Down the Chimney He Came With a Bunch"; Alpha Chi Rho, "And the Glory of His Light Shone From Afar"; Tau Kappa Epsilon, "A Hard Night's Work"; and Sigma Chi, "Christmas Horizons," featuring a nonobjective painting.

County Motorist Hurt In Accident

A Littlestown motorist was injured when his station wagon swerved to the side of the road in Hanover and struck the rear of a parked station wagon about 12:25 a.m. Friday.

Lewis D. Murphy, 32, of North Queen St., Littlestown, was taken to the Hanover Hospital.

A hospital spokesman said he was treated for lacerations and contusions of the scalp, abrasions of both knees and slight contusions of the chest.

Penn Township police said Murphy apparently fell asleep. His vehicle was demolished in the crash. The parked station wagon, owned by Joan W. Merrel, Hanover, received $350 damage to the rear and front ends. It was rammed against a Metropolitan-Edison Co. utility pole by the impact. The base of the pole was shattered, township police reported.

Woman Injured In Crash And Husband Win $653,738

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — A Norristown, Pa., woman injured in a highway accident in Delaware, and her husband, have been awarded a total of $653,738 damages in what may be a record award in Delaware.

If allowed to stand, this would be the highest award for personal injury or death in a highway accident, ever made by either state or federal courts in Delaware.

A U.S. District Court jury, after hearing testimony for almost three weeks, granted the compensation to Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Thomas, Jr.

CAR, TRUCK CRASH

Mrs. Thomas, 54, was injured in the collision of a car driven by her daughter, Mary Beth, then 17, with a dump truck owned by Pastor Trucking Co. of Baltimore. The Pastor firm was working for Henry C. Eastburn & Sons, of Newark, Del., and Melvin L. Joseph Construction Co. of Georgetown, Del., main contractors, hauling sand to repair beach erosion following a March, 1962, storm.

The accident occurred July 3, 1962, at the intersection of state routes 14 and 26, at Bethany Beach.

The jury found Lyle Mundy, the truck driver, and Horace Baugh, flagman for Eastburn and Joseph, guilty of negligence.

BRAIN DAMAGE

It was testified that Mrs. Thomas suffered severe brain damage in the accident and will probably require constant care and attention for the rest of her life. The jury determined her life expectancy at 19.2 years. It was also testified that she suffered impairment of her speech and intellectual capacity, and cannot walk without assistance.

The jury awarded $53,738 as her medical expenses so far, $50,000 for her injuries in the accident and $450,000 to treat and care for her in the future. Her husband, who was not involved in the crash, was awarded $100,000 as compensation for the loss of his wife's companionship and services.

Slash Toy

NEW LIONEL TRAIN

Lionel trains, which for years were accused of building trains only for grownups, has broken the price barrier with a new 33-piece train set priced at $10.77.

The science field has become an important part of children's toys with the new Microcraft and Chemcraft sets for the young scientists from $4.50 to $11. Microscopes, more and more sought by young experts, are offered at 88c to $19.95, some with their own enlarger.

For the potential contractor, traveler or rodeo circuit follower there are good metal trucks and machinery by Tonka and Nylint from $8.89. Even the veterinarian can take to the road with a dog kennel on wheels with a visual dome top for $3.95 to $5.95.

CRAFT KITS

"Do-it-yourself" kits for children include a knitting set at 88c to $1.69, a "Black Velvet" paint set for budding artists at $3.95 to $5.95 and craft sets for the young stylist or home decorator.

Of course there still are basketballs, footballs, ice skates and baseball bats and gloves. There are even ice skates in stock, but no one except the children are disappointed that there is no ice skating in the area. Tricycles, starting at $8.95, and bicycles, from $25 to $60, still are very popular gifts.

So if you still have a spot for hiding these things, better get going . . . only a few more days left!

ADJOURN CASE

fense witness was called, while an earlier witness, Sister Margaret Mary, SSND, president of Notre Dame, was recalled by the plaintiffs for further cross-examination.

OTHER CASES CITED

Lewis A. Noonberg, for the defendants, also introduced documentary evidence describing federal grants which have been made over the last decade to private colleges and universities, including sectarian ones.

Also submitted by the defense were excerpts from the charters of universities including Duke, Brown, Baylor and Notre Dame, in which reference is made to the historical connection between the institution and a specific denomination.

Man Kills His Wife, 4 Children, Dog, Parakeet Fires House, Suicides

AUBURN, N.Y. (AP) — An ex-postman who often told friends his body was controlled "by evil forces" seized a revolver Friday night and shot to death his wife and their four children and killed himself.

Police said John Offenberg, 43, killed his wife, Mary, 41, and Patricia, 10; Wayne, 8; John, 5, and Susan, 3. He also, they said, shot the family dog and parakeet and set fire to the house.

When police, called by Offenberg's father-in-law, walked up to the Offenberg home, they heard Offenberg yell, "Call the hospital. I want an autopsy on my body."

Seconds later, they heard a shot. After battering down the front door, police found Offenberg lying in a hallway, a .38-caliber revolver at his side. The bodies of his wife and the children were strewn throughout the two-story home. An upstairs bedroom was on fire.

Buddhists Threaten More Suicides; Fast And Pray

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Vietnamese Buddhist leaders embarked today on a weekend of fasting and praying and threatened a renewal of suicides in their drive to topple the harassed government of Premier Tran Van Huong.

Saigon Buddhist headquarters told of a multi-pronged anti-government campaign on the heels of the Huong regime's announcement that more United States aid would be pouring in to help South Viet Nam's armed forces and economy in the anti-Communist war.

These developments marked the end of two weeks of relative calm in the capital and the beginning of the Buddhist campaign.

of some 50 anti-Castro pickets in front of the U.N., a woman brandishing a hunting knife sprang toward the building, bent on assassinating the Cuban minister, Ernesto Guevara. She was subdued by police.

REACTS COOLY

Guevara reacted coolly when he learned he had been her target. He said he forgave her adding: "It is better to be killed by a woman with a knife than by a man with a gun."

Four hours after the bazooka shot, two men broke from the picket line and cut the rope on the Russian flagpole, sending the Soviet emblem falling to the ground. The two were arrested.

The bazooka was found on a Queens pier, a paper Cuban flag pasted on it. The shell was lobbed about 850 yards before it fell into the water about 100 yards from the Manhattan shore and the U.N. Building.

15-FOOT GEYSER

The blast sent up a 15-foot geyser witnessed by some U.N. observers in the building and by boatmen on the river.

The General Assembly session, which Guevara had been addressing at the time, went on undisturbed by the muffled roar outside.

conduct a 48-hour hunger strike. 2. Buddhist headquarters opened for a continuous round of prayers for the government's overthrow.

3. The main Buddhist school in Saigon issued a pamphlet today condemning British Ambassador Gordon Etherington-Smith for his Dec. 3 speech at his home, praising Huong, who was the guest of honor.

4. Monks in Darlac Province, 160 miles northeast of Saigon, said they were awaiting orders from Saigon to begin protest suicides against the government such as the series of fiery sacrifices which last year helped bring down the Ngo Dinh Diem regime.

CABINET FUSS

Originally, Buddhist leaders supported Huong but objected to several members of his cabinet on grounds that they had been affiliated with the Diem regime.

Huong refused to reshuffle the cabinet and the Buddhist leaders turned their attacks on Huong himself. They have made it clear they would settle for nothing less than veto power over the appointments of any ranking official in Viet Nam.

Vietnamese and American officials say Viet Cong agents have infiltrated the Buddhist groups, seeking to turn national rule into chaos.

ASK U.S. SUPPORT

The Buddhist hierarchy, in a letter to U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, called on the United States for support in a campaign to oust Huong's regime.

But the Huong government Friday issued a communique announcing the American agreement for a step-up in assistance. A proclamation of joint plans hinted the war soon will be extended beyond South Viet Nam's frontiers. North Viet Nam has been dispatching recruits and supplies to the Communist Viet Cong by way of trails through eastern Laos.

Foth Entered In Fishing Tourney

ISLAMORADA, Fla. — Fourteen of the world's finest sports fishermen, including Bart Foth of Gettysburg, and former baseball star Ted Williams, will compete in an unusual fishing tournament today.

Seven noted anglers are challenging seven officials of the Metropolitan Miami Fishing Tournament in the one-day contest.

The anglers will pursue 23 types of fish with all kinds of tackle. The winner will be named on a point system based on fish caught and tackle and bait used.

OFFICIALS TO MEET

A meeting of the Gettysburg chapter of PIAA basketball officials will be held Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

Twice as many people are engaged in clerical work as in 1940. Maybe we are no more mixed up than ever, but we're getting it all down on paper.

FORM TOURING PLAYER GROUP

The Totem Pole Playhouse at Caledonia State Park, under the direction of William H. Puteh, has formed a new group called the Tadpole Players.

The company of adult players will present a series of four children's plays in the fall in a specially designed bus which will carry the company, scenery, costumes and sound equipment touring throughout the 10 counties surrounding the Totem Pole.

Each play will tour for a period of six weeks from September through May; presenting "The Indian Captive," "Beauty and the Beast," "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" and "Maggie's Magic Teapot." Geared for the elementary school pupil, the performances are available to schools, parent-teacher associations and civic organizations. In expanding the activities of the newly-formed corporation, Thunderbird Limited, Inc., Mr. Puteh explained that the Tadpole Player program in addition to the summer season at the Totem Pole Playhouse will provide year-round enjoyment for people in the acting profession.

Mr. Puteh has been associated with the bus-truck tours of many Broadway productions. Two seasons ago he produced the touring production of Donizetti's Comic Opera "The Elixir of Love" for Columbia Artists Management which covered the area east of the Mississippi in a period of eight weeks.

Associated with Mr. Puteh in the Tadpole venture will be Tom McKenna of Lisbon, O., a member of the acting company of the Totem Pole for the past two seasons, formerly associated with the Pittsburgh Children's Theater. A published children's theater author, he will be represented in the first series as coauthor of the original Irish Fantasy "Maggie's Magic Teapot."

The council also recommended a study of weather modification as it affects all farm production and urged the legislature to appropriate funds not exceeding $500,000 for a study of the effects of chemical residuals on farm products.

In other resolutions, the group: —Recommended the state Agriculture Department for "prompt action" earlier this year in developing and financing a testing program for the detection and reduction of chemical residuals.

—Voiced approval of Pennsylvania State University's request to the legislature for an appropriation "to meet the growing needs of agriculture in the commonwealth."

—Called on all farm organizations to work together to achieve effective recognition for the well-being of Pennsylvania agriculture. Joseph W. Hallowell of Ivyland, Bucks County, was re-elected president of the council, and J. Lewis Williams of Uniontown was named vice president. O. W. Rittenhouse of Vanderbilt, Fayette County, who retired as secretary-treasurer after seven years, was succeeded by Richard D. Van Noy of Harrisburg.

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — A law authorizing rigid control over the movement, homes and jobs of more than 7 million of South Africa's 12 million Africans who live in cities and on farms outside the African rural reserves will become effective Jan. 1.

Opponents of the measure, announced Friday by the government, describe it as the most drastic race-segregation law imposed yet by the government. One provision of the law would deprive Africans of residential rights although previously they had a legal right to remain in urban areas.

Sir de Villiers Graff, United Party opposition leader, said the law would turn all Africans outside the rural reserves into "a vast floating labor pool from which the government could detach individual units from time to time."

Kenya Celebrates First Birthday Of Independence

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — Kenya celebrated the first anniversary of its independence today by becoming a republic.

Jomo Kenyatta, who as premier steered the East African country through its first year out of colonial status, became its first president.

Thousands of Africans cheered as Kenyatta's presidential standard was hoisted above Jambhuri Stadium, signifying his elevation from premier to president.

Kenya will stay within the British Commonwealth of Nations. It got its independence as a dominion last year after 68 years of British colonial rule. As a republic it no longer will be constitutionally tied to the British monarchy.

UNDISPUTED MASTER

Kenyatta, believed to be 74 years old, is its undisputed master. A British colonial governor once called him a "leader to darkness and death" but during the past few years he has won respect as a leading African politician.

In 1952 he was sentenced to seven years in jail for alleged Mau Mau terrorist activities. It was nine years before he was freed.

He says he follows a policy of nonalignment. He lived in London for 15 years, starting in 1931, and roomed with American singer Paul Robeson during some of that time.

He married an English girl and took a graduate course in anthropology while in London. Before returning to Kenya in 1946, he studied for a time at Moscow University.

His African National Union Party swept to victory in the 1963 elections and he was sworn in as the country's first prime minister.

Car Jumps Curve, Two Youths Die

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP) — Two Clinton County men were killed today when their car jumped a curve at a Lock Haven street intersection and smashed into a tree on the Lock Haven State College campus.

City police identified the victims as Dale Johnson, 17, and Larry P. Fravel, 22, both of Castanea, near Lock Haven. It was not known who was driving the auto at the time of the 1:15 a.m. accident.

Police believe the car was traveling at a high rate of speed. Neither victim was a student at the college.

BOBBY SHANTZ TO CLOSE OUT BIG LOOP BALL

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Sixteen seasons and 218 games later, left-handed pitcher Bobby Shantz is closing out his major league baseball career right where he started, in Philadelphia.

Shantz, 39, announced his retirement Friday, explaining that he no longer felt he could do the job the way he liked to do it.

Throughout his 12 years in the American League and four in the National, Shantz won a total of 119 games and lost 99. Noted as one of the best fielding pitchers in the game, he had won the Golden Glove every year since 1957.

STARTED IN 1949

The 5-foot-7, 151-pound southpaw from Pottstown, Pa., broke into the majors with the Philadelphia Athletics of the American League in 1949, and stayed with the A's through their move to Kansas City in 1954. During that stretch, in 1952, he had posted a 24-7 season record to be named the league's Most Valuable Player.

In 1957 he was traded to the New York Yankees and pitched for them through 1960.

In December, 1960, during the American League expansion, Shantz was drafted by Washington, which traded him two days later to the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The following year, the National League expansion sent him to Houston in another draft. Shantz was traded to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1962. Early last year he was sent to the Chicago Cubs. The Phillies purchased him from the Cubs last August 15.

For his final season, Shantz had a won-lost record of 2-5 and was 1-1 with the Phillies.

Today's Talk

HOW TO TAKE LIFE HAPPILY

In the first place, the way to take life happily is to take it as it comes, meeting every obligation and emergency with courage and patience. We never know what a day may bring forth, but if we are forearmed with a certain cheerful readiness, we can be assured that whatever may happen, we shall be able to meet it without fear.

Every experience in life resolves itself into a lesson. These lessons are what make us alert and alive to events. Said William James: Let no youth have any anxiety about the upshot of his education, whatever the line may be. If he keeps faithfully busy each hour of the working day, he may safely leave the final result to itself.

Worries won't help. They never have. But a cheerful outlook, and the courage to face all events as they occur, will help. Many people try to take too much life at a time, whereas it should be taken carefully, thoughtfully — even an inch at a time! I like those two words — without fear. Think for a moment how full of meaning they are. The shut-in realizes them and so is fortified with patience and a happy outlook.

Sorrow, disappointment and failure are difficult things to have — but they are a part of life, and come to all of us in time, in some form or other. But they can be made to be but temporary. We can arise, as the Prodigal Son did in the Bible story, and go to meet happier events. We can begin again. Life is full of detours, but most detours bring us out to the smooth road eventually. The memory of the rough road is then quickly forgotten.

No matter how difficult the way of life may appear at times, cheerfulness is bound to creep in, just like the sunshine does through dark clouds, when least expected. "Some days," said the poet Longfellow, "must be dark and dreary." Do you ever note that those who seem to experience more trouble than their share, actually take life in its stride — happily?

Each of us should early formulate a philosophy of life, personally conceived, and stay by it through thick and thin. Such a plan will do more to assure success and happiness than anything else. It will take anyone safely over the bumps!

But I'd hate to do the firing.
As my friends I'd try to hold them,
I could praise, but couldn't scold them.

I could never shout: "Get going!"

I'd raise wages when I shouldn't;
Plan to cut them down? I couldn't.

Well, I know my limitation,
Hence my choice of occupation.

Men? I'd rather understand them
Than from day to day command them.

Than to crack a whip and scare them.

I'm no boss, and well I know it!

SALINGER TO QUIT SENATE FOR NEW JOB

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California Sen. Pierre Salinger and Senator-elect George Murphy are swapping jobs.

Salinger is resigning three days early to go into the movie business.

And old show business pro Murphy is heading for Washington early — to plug into Salinger's Senate seat while it's still warm.

Democrat Salinger lost to Republican Murphy in November after a bitter campaign. But — on the altar of seniority, for the good of the golden state — the two Friday shrugged off old insults.

GETS NEW JOB

Salinger called a news conference to say he had finally decided among a host of job offers: Jan. 1 he becomes a vice president of National General Corp., a theater, movie-making and closed-circuit television firm.

And, said Salinger, he was resigning from the Senate Dec. 31, and Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown was appointing Murphy to fill the term — which would give Murphy seniority over other freshman senators taking office Jan. 3.

Murphy — who was saying last Nov. 2 "I am tired of Salinger's bad manners and his arrogance" — quickly commended Salinger for his "kind gesture."

COURT DOWNS APPEAL TO LIFT KREBIOZEN BAN

CHICAGO (AP) — A federal court has dismissed a suit aimed at lifting the ban on interstate shipment of Krebiozen, a drug which the government contends is useless in the treatment of cancer.

Judge Edwin A. Robson of the U.S. District Court found Friday that public harm that might result if the drug was shipped freely again outweighs any damage the plaintiff may suffer.

The plaintiff is Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, physiologist and chief scientific sponsor of Krebiozen. He had asked the court to remove the prohibition on shipments placed by the food and drug administration.

TRIAL SCHEDULES

Ivy and Dr. Stevan Durovic, who developed the drug, and two others are scheduled to go to trial Jan. 11 on charges of fraud, misrepresentation and misbranding in connection with distribution of the drug.

Dr. Ivy said patients who had been treated with Krebiozen should be brought to Chicago to testify at the trial, but some of them might die for lack of treatment with Krebiozen.

Judge Robson said deposition could be taken now from such patients.

The judge based his decision on his conclusion that "no substantial constitutional question was raised."

PUBLIC HARM

He also said: "The court must weigh against such harm as the plaintiff might suffer if the relief were denied, the harm which the public might sustain if the relief were granted. The court finds the public harm would at this time seem to far outweigh that of the plaintiffs."

Krebiozen is made and distributed in Illinois.

The government contends the drug is useless in the treatment of cancer. Dr. Ivy maintains that it has shown enough results to warrant a thorough testing.

George T. Davis, Ivy's attorney, announced he will appeal, possibly to the U.S. Supreme Court directly.

Dave Beck Leaves Prison; Served Half Of Sentence

By PAUL WELLS

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Two and a half years ago Dave Beck mangled a famed quotation and said, "Remember boys, as Gen. Mac Arthur said 'I'll be back.'"

Today at 70 he comes back — back from the anonymity of prison life across the three miles of Puget Sound that have separated him from freedom since June 20, 1962.

The white launch that carried him away on a sunny summer day to nearby McNeil Island Federal Prison will return him in raw December to the same dock where he bade his farewell.

PAROLED DEC. 1

Beck, a self-made millionaire and once a power in the labor world as head of the Teamsters Union, was granted parole Dec. 1 after being turned down twice before.

No one ever gave an official reason for the rejections other than a "minor infraction" of prison rules.

One report said he tried to slip notes to visitors for delivery on the outside.

Another was that he tried to arrange a gift so another prisoner could fly to New York for his mother's funeral.

Either would break prison rules.

Beck also was said to have argued with the warden over some of the restrictions on the 1,500 inmates of the island prison and to have helped a convict-committee press for a new set of rules.

LASTS THREE YEARS

With Beck's release today he has served nine days less than half of a five-year sentence for filing fraudulent tax returns for the union's Joint Council Building Association in Seattle. Before he entered prison he won reversal of a conviction of evading more than $240,000 in personal income taxes.

He will remain under supervision of a federal parole officer until June 20, 1967.

The state also prepared parole papers for Beck to sign in connection with a five-year sentence for grand larceny. He was convicted in county court of pocketing $1,900 from the sale of a union-owned auto. The state parole will last three years.

WORKED ON MEMOIRS

During his time in prison Beck worked as an apple canner, labored on his memoirs and was stricken with pneumonia resulting from a bad case of sunburn.

In this interval the life he will return to in Seattle changed.

His mother, Mrs. Mary Beck, died in March, 1963, at the age of 95.

His wife, Dorothy, died in November, 1961, before he was imprisoned.

One of his lawyers, George Kargianis, said accommodations for Beck have been arranged in Seattle, but would not say where or what they were.

He draws a $50,000 a year pension from the union in which he rose from laundry truck driver to international president, a post he held from 1952-58.

SANTA and the SINGING TURTLE

Synopsis: Tweedleknives gives the Prince, the Turtle and the Snowman magic shoes which will carry them to Fairyland in time for the Music Festival.

CHAPTER EIGHT WOMP'S CHANCE

George and the Snowman and the Prince hurried to the forest on the east side of Santa Land. It was a long walk, but Patrick Tweedleknives had warned them not to put on the magic shoes until they reached the forest.

The Snowman carried his new broom over one shoulder and his fine shoes slung over the other. His tall silk hat was cocked over his new emerald eye.

"Suppose it is hot in Fairyland," he thought anxiously. "If it is I shall melt away!"

MADE HIM SAD

This thought made him sad because he felt healthy and whole for the first time in his life. He didn't tell his friends what was on his mind because he was afraid they would make him sad behind.

George probably would not have heard him anyway. It had been a whole day since the turtle had practiced his singing and he was trying to make up for it now.

"Do re mi fa so la ti do," he sang as he plodded along. First in C, then F sharp, then B flat and so forth. It was very trying to listen to and the Prince was glad when they finally reached the forest and stopped to put on the shoes Tweedleknives had given them.

AN EASY TASK

This was not an easy task. The Snowman was so large and ungainly he could hardly reach his feet, much less put shoes on. The turtle's feet were so tiny he couldn't keep his shoes on.

The Prince put his shoes on a rock and bent over the Snowman's huge feet. He shoved and pushed and tugged and finally the Snowman's shoes were on.

WALKING ON AIR

"Hey! Look at me!" exclaimed the Snowman. "I'm walking on air!"

"Good gracious!" cried George. "I feel weightless."

He took one step, then another, and suddenly his legs went zip, zip like a pair of scissors and swish! the Snowman was gone.

"Oh, dear," wailed the turtle struggling with his shoes. "We should stay together!"

"Don't worry, we'll catch up," said the Prince. He slipped the four little shoes on George's feet and tied the laces tight.

"Good gracious!" cried George. "I feel weightless!" He waddled three steps and then all four feet began to churn and swish! The turtle was gone, crying "Hurry, Prince!" as he sped away.

PUTS ON SHOES

The Prince hurried to put on his own shoes, but when he went to the rock where he had left them they were gone. He turned the rock over and kicked up the snow. There was no sign of the shoes.

Then the Prince saw foot prints leading into the forest. "Could the shoes have gone off by themselves?" he wondered.

Frantically he followed the tracks. On and on they went, deep into the forest. The Prince began to run. His heart pounded. It was growing dark. Soon he would not be able to see the tracks.

STUMBLES OVER LOGS

He stumbled over fallen logs and crashed into trees. A low limb swept the crown from his head. He left it where it fell and rushed on.

When he felt he could not run another step the tracks came to an end. The Prince found himself in a small clearing in the woods. Standing waiting for him was Womp, the man with the magic shoes in his hands.

Tomorrow: Womp Casts a Spell.

JAGAN REFUSES TO QUIT POST; CLAIMS FRAUD

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP) — British Guiana headed into a governmental crisis today as Premier Cheddi Jagan said he would not resign.

Gov. Sir Richard Luyt consulted with London to determine how the Marxist leader could be forced out.

"I will not resign," Jagan told a news conference. "The British government will have to force me out."

Luyt asked London for an order permitting him to summon the new legislative assembly without the premier's consent.

Some sources close to the governor said Jagan's tenure would end with the calling of the assembly.

CHARGED FRAUD

Traditionally, premiers resign when defeated in elections. But Jagan charged fraud in the vote Monday which cost him his majority in the assembly. His decision not to resign was backed by a vote of the executive committee of his People's Progressive party.

Luyt held separate meetings with Jagan and two opposition leaders, Forbes Burnham of the People's National Congress and Peter D'Aguiar of the United Force.

Burnham, who is expected to succeed Jagan, announced Thursday that he and D'Aguiar had agreed to form a coalition government. Jagan's party won the most seats — 24 — in Monday's election. But the National Congress with 22 and United Force with 7 would have a five-vote majority as a coalition.

SEE RACE RIOTS

Jagan was believed attempting to use his forced removal from office to discredit the incoming regime and possibly provoke a fresh outbreak of racial violence. Meanwhile, he and his wife, the former Janet Rosenberg of Chicago, moved out of the premier's residence.

Jagan, an East Indian, draws his support from that element of the population, while Burnham is a Negro and the leader of his race in the British colony. East Indians outnumber Negroes 3-2. Clashes between the two races took 167 lives during the past year.

COURT AWARDS $100,000 IN GAS FUME CASE

READING, Pa. (AP) — A Common Pleas Court jury Thursday night found the American Beryllium Corp. of America guilty of a charge of negligence in releasing beryllium fumes into the air and it awarded a couple $100,000.

The Berks County Court jury awarded Mrs. Ruth E. Heck, 43, of nearby Temple, $75,000 on her claim that she suffered lung poisoning from the fumes emitted from the company's plant at Temple.

Her husband, Wilbur, was awarded $35,000 for his wife's medical expenses and in compensation for the loss of her aid and companionship.

During the 13-day trial, it was testified that Mrs. Heck was exposed to the fumes from the clothing of a brother and her husband, both of whom worked at the plant.

About 20 other suits charging pollution by the metal are pending in various courts. This was believed to be the first decision handed down in the state in this type of case.

Jackie Attends Concert Thursday

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — In a rare public appearance, Mrs. John F. Kennedy went to the United Nations Thursday night for a concert.

The concert in the General Assembly hall celebrated the 16th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Mrs. Kennedy attended with Adlai E. Stevenson, chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations. Stevenson is the chairman of the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Fund, and Mrs. Roosevelt was a chief architect of the human rights declaration.

CREW WRECKS WRONG PLACE BY MISTAKE

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lsi Wenzky was riding a cab home from the airport, returning from a business trip to Chicago, when he started in disbelief at what was happening to the apartment house he owns.

"Stop the cab!" he shouted. A wrecking crew was demolishing Wenzky's two-story building not far from his home.

"What're you doing?" he yelled at a workman.

The worker shrugged. He spoke only Spanish, as did his assistants. Wenzky speaks none. He went home.

That was Monday. All night he tossed, unable to sleep, until morning came and he went back to make sure he had seen what he had seen.

"SEE MY LAWYER"

The workers were carrying away bits of wreckage shattered furniture. But there was someone there who directed Wenzky to a wrecking company office in Burbank, across town.

Wenzky inquired there. A Glendale wrecker gave them the address and asked them to do the job, an official of the Burbank firm said.

"He was kind of hard of hearing," said the Burbank man. "Maybe it was the house next door we were supposed to tear down."

Wenzky, 60, went back to examine all that remains of his apartment — a stub of fireplace.

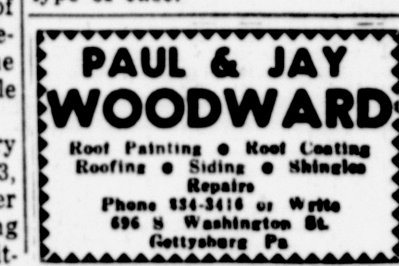

"I think I'll see my lawyer," he said.

U. OF C. CAMPUS FUSS PART OF FOREIGN PLOT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — President Eric A. Walker of Pennsylvania State University has charged that the recent campus controversy at the University of California over student political activity was part of an organized campaign to embarrass American universities.

Addressing an alumni luncheon here Thursday, Dr. Walker said the FBI had warned him and other college presidents last March that there would be an "organized attempt using bogus students and bogus faculty members to divert the energies of students into channels embarrassing to our universities, using slogans like 'free speech' and 'civil rights' to mask their goals."

He called the recent disturbances part of "an organized attempt by foreign money to disrupt the universities of America" and a "vicious, organized, more than a nationwide movement that must be stamped out, if we can do it without trampling on innocent toes."

Dr. Walker was asked why the University of California at Berkeley had supported the student demonstrations against campus restrictions on political activity, by a vote of 84 to 115.

"I don't understand it," Dr. Walker replied. "Some professors just want to be different. If you tell them a wall is black, they'll insist it's white. Perhaps that goes with being creative."

He said Penn State is lucky to be "out in the sticks, where students and faculty members can't fade back into the community" after stirring up trouble.

He said similar trouble could come to Penn State "unless we prepare some defenses," but he said he did not know what could be done because the campus, as state property, "is open to anyone who wants to walk in."

Practice Few Common Rules For Safe Holiday Lighting; Check Wires For Damage

CHEESECAKE CRISIS HITS GI'S ABROAD

NEW DATA DUE

The banns of marriage were announced for the first time in St. Joseph's Church on Sunday for Miss Dora Harriet Eyer and Lawrence Benjamin Hobbs.

About $36 million of the decrease was in defense stockpiles, valued at $8.471 billion on Nov. 1. Most of the decrease was due to multimillion-dollar disposals of surplus rubber, zinc and tin.

HOLIDAY FOODS

The holiday season is a time for entertaining and means you can serve food to more persons than you usually do. It could mean that you'll be too tired from the extra preparation to enjoy your friends.

put in good condition, the important thing is to use it. This practice enables the dairyman to detect lameness or signs of sickness before they are noticed in the barn. Even more important, "standing" heat can be detected to insure proper timing of service. Some dairymen have the mistaken idea that cows should not be turned out in cold weather. But, temperatures never get too low in Pennsylvania for cows to be out for a least 15 to 30 minutes. If they are turned out each day so they become accustomed to winter weather, cows should be allowed to exercise outdoors even in subzero weather. The only exceptions are severe sleet storms or when the lot is so slippery that cows might be injured by falling.

Buddhist Monks Backed Campaign To Defeat Widow In Parliament

By DENZIL PEIRIS
COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Sirimavo Bandaranaike was a weeping widow with three children when she became the world's only woman to head a government.

She was elected prime minister of Ceylon in July 1960, on a sympathy vote after her husband, Prime Minister Solomon Bandaranaike, was assassinated by a Buddhist monk.

Now, five months before her five-year term is due to end, Mrs. Bandaranaike has suffered her worst setback — a defeat by one vote in Parliament last Friday. She announced afterward she would dissolve Parliament and call elections.

BUDDHIST DRIVE

The defeat stemmed from a campaign by Buddhist monks who interpreted her moves to take over the country's biggest newspaper group — Lake House — as part of a drive toward dictatorship.

The monks assailed her coalition with the Trotskyite Sama Samaj party, declaring it anti-Buddhist and antimodernistic.

The monks found another target in Trotskyite Finance Minister Dr. N. M. Perera's budget proposal to ease restrictions on tapping coconut trees for toddy, a fermented alcoholic juice. They charged this was a deliberate Marxist plan to destroy Buddhism, which forbids alcoholic drinks.

FEARED MONKS

Mrs. Bandaranaike scrapped the toddy plan. But she did not yield in the press nationalization issue.

Defections from her Freedom party last week reflected backbenchers' fears of antagonizing the monks. Many rural members of Parliament were put into power with the monks' help.

In her four years of power, the politically inexperienced housewife became headstrong, resolute and intolerant of criticism — in contrast to her politically experienced husband.

Backbenchers bowed to her will because of the lack of any other nationally acceptable figure in their party.

PUSHED RADICAL ACTS

The daughter of a liberal-minded rural chief, Mrs. Bandaranaike pushed through radical socialist measures:

—The takeover of Shell, Esso and Caltex oil installations, in defiance of a U.S. aid clampdown and vigorous British protests.

—Nationalization of British, Indian, Canadian and Australian insurance firms.

—Nationalization of the Ceylonese bank and a threat to take control of British, Indian and Pakistani banks.

TOOK OVER SCHOOLS

She also took over schools run by religious organizations, ignoring a civil disobedience movement by nearly 800,000 Roman Catholics.

In foreign policy Mrs. Bandaranaike followed a course of nonalignment, worked closely with President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt, tried to mediate Indian-Chinese border disputes and described herself as anti-imperialist.

POLICIES HURT BRITISH

Her wealth depended on lands given to her ancestors for service to Britain, but her policies hurt British tea and rubber planting concerns and the import-export trade they controlled.

Mrs. Bandaranaike paid homage to a portrait of her late husband night and morning. Also — in spite of her quarrel with monks over the press takeover — she was deeply religious, spending half an hour each morning and evening sitting cross-legged before an image of Buddha in her home.

EMBRACED TROTSKYITES

Taking the Trotskyites into her government, she explained she wanted to shore up her parliamentary majority and at the same time break up an ominously promising unity movement of three previously quarreling Marxist parties.

She achieved the second aim. She also secured industrial peace after a fierce outbreak of strikes that for three months crippled the export trade Ceylon depends on for its clothing, rice and sugar on sales of tea, rubber and coconut.

DICTATOR'S PATH

Mrs. Bandaranaike was defeated by her unswerving determination to go ahead with the nationalization of the press group. She felt she had been venomously and unfairly attacked in newspapers during the 1960 elections.

In addition, her government was chronically assailed by mounting inflation and falling foreign assets, which forced drastic import curbs affecting the production of consumer goods. Development did not match increases in the labor force, and critics said this failure was a fundamental reason for what they called her drift toward dictatorship.

APPEALS WRIT IN DEATH CASE

PHILADELPHIA (A) — An appeal for a writ of habeas corpus, filed by Albert Raymond, under sentence of death for the killing of a policeman, has been taken under advisement by a panel of three U.S. Circuit Court judges.

The petition was originally denied by Judge John W. Lord of the U.S. District Court. Raymond's attorney, Cecil Moore, appealed to the circuit court and argued the case Friday before Judges Albert B. Maris, J. Cullen Ganey and William Smith.

Moore contended that an agreement that Raymond was not to be questioned had been violated by a state parole officer who talked to him following his arrest for the slaying of officer William H. Powell Jr., a few years ago.

Assistant District Attorney Thomas Reed said the questioning concerned a robbery that Raymond was alleged to have committed before Powell was killed.

Youth Stabbed In Gang Attack

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Joseph Cizmarik, 18, of Philadelphia was listed in fair condition today at Delaware County Hospital with four stab wounds of the chest.

Police said Cizmarik was jumped by a gang in Upper Darby Friday night and stabbed several times. Two of Cizmarik's companions, James Farrow, 17, and Edward Spencer, 18, both of Philadelphia, suffered lacerations in the scrap and were treated and released, police said.

They told police they had left a parked car to visit a soda shop when the gang surrounded them and beat them. Police, however, charged the trio with fighting on the highway after they ran when police approached.

Poverty Offices Cost $8 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government will direct its war on poverty from the top seven stories of a new office building in midtown at an annual rental of $8,225,000.

Terms were given Friday by a spokesman for the General Services Administration, who described them as favorable. He said the cost of floor space — $4.70 a square foot — is "substantially less than the cost of similar space in the same area."

11 Japanese Plan To Scale Mountain

TOKYO (AP) — Eleven Japanese plan to scale the 13,113-foot Sinkao Shan in Formosa early next year, a spokesman reported today.

The party, led by Noboru Endo, 34, an official of Tokyo's Self Defense Forces Hospital, will sail for Taipei Dec. 27.

Austria has 14 universities. There are 5,130 licensed glid-

NAVAL WORKERS FACE FURLOUGH

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — About 440 employees of the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard face three-month furloughs at the start of 1965, because of a temporary dip in the yard's work load.

The employees were given notice Friday that they will be furloughed from Jan. 10 to April 10, although a yard spokesman said some might be called back sooner if activity increases. The shipyard employs some 8,100 workers.

Only three weeks ago, Philadelphia officials were relieved to learn that the Philadelphia Naval Yard had been spared in the Defense Department's shutdown of many other defense installations. Mayor James H. J. Tate said at the time he had been informed that the result would be an increase of several hundred jobs here.

WILL SEARCH FOR AIRCRAFT

VIRGINIA CITY, Mont. (AP) — A search group was scheduled to go into the snow-covered, mountainous area south of Virginia City today to check on reports that a light plane crashed there Friday night.

Sheriff Phil Loucks said the Civil Aeronautics Administration reported a red and white Piper missing on a flight from Lock Haven, Pa., to Hillsboro, Ore.

In Williamsport, Pa., a spokesman for the federal Aeronautics Administration said it had no report of a plane missing on a flight from Lock Haven, indicating that no flight plan was filed. He said it was not unusual for the pilot of a small craft not to file a flight plan even on a cross-country trip.

Loucks said the search group would set out today to check out reports from area residents who said they saw the plane and heard an explosion.

Hubert Cancels Order To Tailor

WASHINGTON (AP) — In some circles when the boss wears a gray suit you wear a gray suit. And so it will be with Hubert H. Humphrey on his first day as vice president.

"He's going to wear what the President wears, of course," his office announced Friday, a day after word came from the White House that on inaugural day, Jan. 20, President Johnson will wear an Oxford gray business suit.

A few days ago Humphrey, anticipating the usual more formal morning dress attire, had gone to a tailor to get measured for such. No problem, the tailor, Sam Uecugna, told a reporter. "I hadn't even started on the suit."

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) —

Salvador Frisella, who has spent the last 41 of his 76 years in a state mental institution at Jackson, Miss., was taken to a New Orleans jail Thursday to await disposition of murder charges filed against him in 1923. He was recently adjudged sane.

The district attorney's office said bringing Frisella to trial would pose a problem because many witnesses in the case are probably dead.

Frisella was committed to the asylum three months after he was accused of slaying a man.

Heart Attack Fatal To Negro Leader

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dr. Eugene Weyman Jones, founder and executive director of Heritage House, died of a heart attack Friday.

Dr. Jones, about 50, was a native of West Virginia, where he attended Bluefield State College. He attended graduate school at Temple University here, and obtained his Ph.D. in 1953.

After settling in Philadelphia, the Negro leader became active in civic affairs and founded such organizations as the Collegiate A Cappella Choir, the Philadelphia Cotillion Society, the North City Congress, and Heritage House, in 1953.

Heritage House is a nonprofit organization set up to give training, education, and cultural improvement to underprivileged Negro children and adults.

Dr. Jones' parents, residents of Mountville, W. Va., were enroute to Philadelphia to make funeral arrangements.

Postal Workers To Get Holiday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General John A. Gronouski has announced suspension of normal mail deliveries on Saturday, Dec. 26, so that Post Office personnel can have a three-day Christmas weekend at minimum expense to the government.

Employees who normally would have worked that day would be entitled to a compensatory day off the following week, on which substitute workers would have to be hired to replace them. That is where the saving — $3 million to $4 million — comes in, Gronouski said Friday.

The postmaster said most of the 590,000 postal employees will get a three-day holiday weekend, although post offices will have two-hour window service for business firms Dec. 26.

World News

DEEP RIVER, Ont. (AP) — The brain drain from Canada to the United States has been reversed, the president of the Engineering Institute of Canada said Thursday night.

Col. George E. Humphries of Montreal said in an interview that "the migration began in the 1930s when Canada had more trained persons than it could absorb." But the trend came to a standstill in 1958, he said, and "by 1961 it became quite noticeable that the situation was reversing."

PARIS (AP) — Police said today that the last of the Petit Clamart plotters against the life of President Charles de Gaulle is believed under arrest.

They said he is Antoine Severin Luciani, 35, a Corsican and former physical education teacher. He was picked up Dec. 3 as he walked out of a bar in Paris.

De Gaulle was ambushed in the suburb of Petit Clamart on Aug. 22, 1962, but was not hurt. Lt. Col. Jean-Marie Bastien-Thiry, 35, was convicted of leading the plot and was executed by a firing squad. About a dozen other persons are serving prison terms for participating in the plot.

ROME (AP) — A special Italian government commission seeking a foolproof way to keep the leaning Tower of Pisa from toppling over has 300 how-to-do-it ideas to work on.

The commission has boiled down almost 1,300 bright ideas from all over the world. Cost estimates range from $250,000 to $4.8 million.

The bell tower began to lean in 1185 while in the 12th year of its construction, due to instability of the soil. The top of the 14,000-ton tower is now 39 inches closer to the south side.

The tower leans a bit further each year, an annual rate now of about the width of the head of a pin.

A slight alteration has been made in the United States-Mexico border, the National Geographic says. Mexico lost land along the Rio Grande when the river shifted course in the 19th Century. An exchange of treaty ratifications early in 1964 restored to Mexico a large part of El Paso's Chamizal Zone. Four miles of the Rio Grande will be relocated in a concrete channel along the new boundary.

DIRTY CHIMNEY CAUSED FUMES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Investigators from Philadelphia's Air Pollution Control Board say that the coal gas fumes that sickened 78 pupils and five teachers at North Philadelphia's John F. Hartranft Elementary School were caused by failure to clean out the chimney and duct system of the heating plant.

They said Friday the operator of the heating system lacked "the experience (and) knowledge" to spot the trouble.

School officials said they will check maintenance regulations at other schools as a result of the incident at Hartranft Nov. 23.

City school superintendent Dr. C. Taylor Whittier reviewed Friday the employment record of Hartranft custodian Ronald Finucane. He said the department of Licenses and Inspections had issued a fireman's license to Finucane Jan. 9, 1962, when he joined the school district. Finucane obtained his stationary engineer's license in September, 1963, and passed an on-the-job oral and practical examination in the school to which he had been assigned, Whittier said.

Whittier added that Finucane had had proper staff supervision throughout his employment.

PATTERSON IN RING TONIGHT

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Floyd Patterson, the former world heavyweight champion who hopes to win the title for the third time, takes another step on the comeback trail here tonight. He meets Charlie Powell of San Diego, Calif. in a 10-rounder at Hiram Bithorn Stadium.

The bout is a benefit for the Carlos Ortiz Youth Foundation, Inc., which promotes a youth program in Puerto Rico, and is expected to attract a crowd of 8,000 at $20 tops. The gross gate is expected to be around $70,000, of which Patterson is guaranteed 35 per cent. Powell gets at least $3,000.

The bout is regarded as a tuneup for Patterson for his fight against Canada's George Chuvalo in New York next month.

Powell is expected to weigh 212 and Patterson 194 for the fight scheduled to start at 9 p.m. EST.

McGiver Stars In "Many Happy Returns", 9:30 Monday

By: RUTH E. THOMPSON

"Hey, Walter, I've got a complaint!"

John McGiver grins. He's getting used to the kidding whenever he shows his face in a department store.

Round-faced McGiver isn't doing any complaining himself right now. At 51, as the fictional complaint-department manager of a fictional department store, he's the star of a network series, "Many Happy Returns" (CBS, Mondays, 9:30 p.m.).

Nine years ago it would all have seemed like a pipe dream. "I didn't even realize then that people were watching television. I wasn't!"

HAS LARGE FAMILY

The father of an expanding family he'd put all thoughts of a theatrical career behind him, except for moonlighting radio scripts to eke out his salary as a New York City high school English teacher. In the 1940's he written a play that opened in Detroit and closed in Chicago. And he'd done some good acting at Walter Kerr's now-famous workshop at Catholic University in Washington . . . but he'd never acted professionally.

So, by the time opportunity started knocking, he didn't recognize it.

"Jean O'Sullivan, who remembered me from the workshop, tracked me down to appear in an off-Broadway play by W. G. Auden. I begged her to find somebody else; when she said she couldn't I said I'd go along but only until she could replace me. I was overworked anyway.

A NICE PLAY

"It was a nice play. Actually the production was intended to showcase some nice young people . . . give them a chance to be seen by agents. Then a funny thing happened. Not one of the youngsters got anything; but I began hearing from agents. Who's MCA I asked?" MCA! The biggest talent agency in the business. Anyone of the kids would have flipped to Mars. Walter threw the note in the waste basket.

It's all in a day's work," John McGiver seems to be saying. But he's the first to admit a troublesome dummy is a lot less trouble than the high school classes he used to teach. In his starring role in "Many Happy Returns" McGiver gets the complaints, has few of his own these days.

But the agents persisted. "I was offered a live television role the next week. Jean coaxed me to take just that once. Well it was extra money . . . and I had the strange idea nobody would ever know about it!"

MANY WATCH TV

"Well, I found out who was watching television. Everybody. Next morning all 5,600 students came rushing up to say they'd seen me!"

The other surprise was the check. "I'd made as much for the night's work as I did in a month of teaching with all its tensions and long hours.

"That was the beginning of 1955. By June I'd done three more shows and had had to take some time off. Sick leave? Not on your life. There's a category to which you're entitled 'for personal reasons.'"

MAKE A DECISION

"Now it was getting to a point where I'd have to make a decision. I liked acting . . . but I didn't want to give up my seniority with the school system. I'd taught from the time I graduated from Fordham in 1936 until World War II. Then I'd gone back in 1948. So I asked for a leave."

Fate, in the form of a school official, tipped the scales.

"Though there was a precedent, my request was turned down." A tabasco tang appears abruptly in McGiver's melted-butter tones. The holder of two master's degrees he was told, "The cases are different. George is a shop teacher and they're hard to get. English teachers are a dime a dozen."

WIFE SPEAKS UP

John's pretty, bright-eyed wife spoke up. "No, I hadn't wanted to influence him at all, but I was happy with the way it came out." Though she's confined herself to home and children since their marriage, she'd planned a career as a scenic designer. "We met at Catholic U," he recalls. "The very first time I ever saw Ruth she was

NETWORKS LIST
FIRST SPECIAL
OF '65 SEASON

"The Capitol: Chronicle of Freedom" is the title chosen by producer-writer Loy Hazam for his documentary tribute to freedom. The program will be colorcast by NBC Tuesday, January 12 (10 - 11 p.m.).

CBS producer-writer Perry Wolff is preparing two documentaries widely separated in period. The first will deal with Thomas Jefferson's service as minister plenipotentiary in France. The second, titled "1945" will mark the 20th year since the close of World War II. No broadcast dates have yet been set.

Betty Friedan's controversial book "The Feminine Mystique" will be the subject of a one-hour ABC special.

Three of the presentations will require extensive location filming. ABC plans to let women "across the country" express their feelings and aspirations.

"The Travels of Thomas Jefferson" will be filmed in Paris and those parts of France and Italy through which Jefferson traveled. Since extensive Jefferson writings of the period are preserved, the story will be narrated in his own words.

Van Heflin has been chosen as narrator of the Jefferson epic, Raymond Massey is to be the narrator for "The Capitol." Incidentally, the program marks "a first." This is the first time motion picture or television cameras have been allowed inside the Senate.

SILENT SONGSTERS

Pointing to its record for off-beat casting, a spokesman for "Wagon Train" noted that this season Bobby Darin played a non-singing outlaw and singer Tommy Sads went him one better. He played a mute!

"LUCY" GUEST

Ann Sothern, who formerly starred in two of her own television series, will make three guest appearances during the current season on Lucille Ball's "Lucy" show on CBS.

McGiver

arguing with somebody about scenery.

"The relief from teaching was great at first, I had more time to spend with the kids, and we bought the old place in West Fulton and started converting it from a summer place to our regular home." (And the "old place" really is. It's a 116-year-old former Baptist Church.)

BIGGER ROLES

"Then the traveling further for bigger roles started," recalls Ruth.

"Hal Kantor really got things going for me," John muses. His first movie, shot in Paris, was "Love in the Afternoon" with Gary Cooper and Audrey Hepburn. There was also a lot of Hollywood visits for television.

"Don't forget Broadway," Ruth reminds. His Broadway debut was in "The Thurber Carnival" with another late-starting star, Paul Ford, who took to acting at the age of 40.

Speaking of Paul Ford brought us back to the McGiver play. "It was ahead of its time. Well ahead of 'Bilko' in which Paul appeared. Though major critics liked it, I was lambasted for kidding American soldiers. I'd written it in Walter Kerr's class. He was a fine teacher and he himself stayed with it."

HAD TOP CAST

"It had a top cast. But because of the reaction, I put in three weeks re-writing it until I'd written it out of existence. Yes, Walter's wife Jean ('Mary, Mary' and other major hits) was a classmate. She got $500 for selling her class assignment, an adaptation of 'Our Hearts Were Young and Gay.' 'Anyhow after we were stranded in Chicago and expecting our first baby we had to move in with Ruth's family. I got a brief job with a television station but when they assigned me 'to dramatize the weather' I went back to teaching fast."

Does he miss the life of an educator. Well hardly, what with ten children now ranging from 16½ years to 18 months.

WAITING FOR BUS

"Right now," chimed in Ruth, figuring the time differential between coasts, "I'm waiting for the school bus."

Explains John: "He's the first of our children ever to go to a Montessori school and he loves it so much he's always early. He's four years old and even learning French. He used to be so shy his two-and-a-half-year old brother could bully him. Not any more."

"Where do we like to live best? Well, before we got back to Santa Monica, Ruth and I are going to run up and make sure everything's all right with the house in West Fulton. We're keeping it." But right now, weather aside you can understand why the McGivers might be partial to California. Daddy's making beautiful money — and enjoying the work to boot — and as he says: "Our present shooting schedule on 'Many Happy Returns' runs through February . . . and there are options for more."
